“ Jose was truly one of the nicest people I ever met. We worked together on the trim dock, he was always so happy and friendly. I remember the day he told me he was getting married, that grin, he felt like the luckiest man in the world. We would see each other occasionally, usually at a gas station and catch up on our families. I am so sad for you , he will be truly missed and fondly remembered. Cecilia Royle

El hermano Briones cuidaba de mi nieto cuando yo iva al altar a orar,Sabia que estaba en buenas manos!Siempre lo recordaremos abriendo la Puerta del santuario cuando llegabamos al templo y abriendola cuando necesitabamos salir!
